

TWE POOLING APPLICATION FORM

When do I use this form?

Use this form when you POOL two or more Transferable Water Entitlements (TWEs).

When you do this the shares allocated to your TWE will remain as originally allocated. This will be your Notice of Pooling to Harvey Water.

DO NOT use this form to temporarily transfer TWE, nor permanently transfer TWE.

Why do I need to fill out this form?

Harvey Water needs to know who its customers are at all times and who has the rights to receive water.

This form provides Harvey Water with information that:

- You want to pool your TWE
- You have the authority to carry out these transactions
- There are no impediments to the pooling which Harvey Water should know about

Is there anything else I should know ?

- All parties must be shareholders of the Harvey Water Cooperatives
- All parties must agree to the pooling
- All parties must nominate a legal entity which will agree to accept the invoices and pay the charges
- All parties must agree to their joint and several liability for the debt in the event of a default in payment
- All parties must agree to separate TWE at a later date if required
- TWE cannot be pooled if there are any outstanding fixed or consumption charges owed to Harvey Water by either party.
- Water consumption and fixed charges will be charged to the NOMINATED entity responsible for payment. If in default of payment all parties will be responsible for the account.
- TWE cannot be pooled between districts
- An administrative fee will apply if and when parties apply to separate a pooling arrangement.
- An administrative Fee of $15.00 must be lodged along with the application form

INFORMATION ONLY

Make sure that the person who witnesses your Statutory Declaration is qualified to be a witness

On 1 January 2006 the Parliament of Western Australia proclaimed the Oaths, Affidavits and Statutory Declarations Act 2005 which makes changes to the manner in which oaths, affidavits and statutory declarations are administered and witnessed.

Under the new legislation more than 40 occupational groups are able to witness statutory declarations, including teachers, engineers, doctors and public servants. This change means the role of commissioner for declarations will no longer exist.

Professions that can now witness statutory declarations include:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Academics - University faculties • Architects • Australian Consular Officers • Australian Diplomatic Officers • Auditors and liquidators • Bank Managers • Chartered Secretaries • Chemists • CPA and Chartered accountants • Chiropractor • Defence Force Officer • Dentist • Doctors • Electoral Registrars • Engineers • Industrial organization secretaries • Insurance brokers • Justice of the Peace • Lawyers • Local government CEO's and Deputy Chiefs • Local government councillors • Loss adjusters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marriage celebrants • Members of Parliament • Minister of Religion • Nurses • Optometrists • Patent Attorney • Physiotherapists • Podiatrists • Police officer • Post Office Managers • Psychologist • Public notary • Public Servants (Commonwealth) • Public Servants (State) • Real Estate Agents • Settlement agents • Surveyor • Teachers • Veterinary surgeons • WA Police Service
